Cap 323

Repeal and replacement of section 66

Royalties on production of minerals

6. The principal Act is amended by the repeal of section sixty-six and the substitution therefor of the following:

66. (1) The holder of a mining licence shall, in accordance with the licence, this Act and the terms of any relevant development agreement, pay to the Republic a royalty on gross value of minerals produced under the licence at the rate of two per centum except that in the case of the former Zambia Consolidated Copper Mines Limited or any other company involved in copper and cobalt production the rate shall be zero point six per centum.

(2) The holder of a gemstone licence or a small-scale mining licence or an artisan’s mining right to mine gemstones, base metals or precious metals shall, in accordance with the licence or mining right, this Act and the terms of any relevant development agreement, pay to the Republic a royalty on gross value of minerals or metals produced under the licence or mining right at the rate of five per centum.

(3) In this section—

“ gross value ” means the realised price for a sale free-on-board, at the point of export from Zambia or point of delivery within Zambia:

Provided that if the Minister considers that the realised price does not correspond to the price that would have been paid for the minerals if they had been sold on similar terms in a transaction, at arms length, between a willing seller and a willing buyer, a notice may be given to that effect to the licensee; and the amount of the gross value shall be determined in accordance with mechanism contained in section ninety-seven A to ninety-seven D of the Income Tax Act.

Cap. 323

Repeal of section 98

7. The principal Act is amended by the repeal of section ninety-eight.
